Ken Freund Bio

I have lived in Prescott Valley for almost six years and own a home here. Presently I am co-host of an automotive-oriented radio talk show on KYCA Prescott and a writer/contributor for RV.com and WildSam Magazine.

Graduate of Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, with a Bachelor of Science in Natural Sciences.

I've been a businessman, administrator and author. Have written numerous automotive how-to books, many hundreds of magazine and online articles.

Former Senior Editor of Rider Magazine, Technical Editor of Trailer Life and MotorHome magazines. Former Technical Service Engineer for Champion Spark Plugs, also Service Director for Mercedes-Benz and GMC dealerships and analyst for VW of America. Was partner in automotive service and restoration business.

I have been a volunteer member of a Sheriff's Search and Rescue, Mountain Rescue qualified, a Wilderness EMT and an air rescue pilot for the Civil Air Patrol. Recipient of a Medal of Valor.

Over the years I have been to 88 countries, 49 states and 7 continents. I intend to use my breadth of experiences to serve my town as a council member.
